Dear Bobby:

I regret that events prevented your participation
in our Special-Agents-in-Charge Conference [redacted] [redacted] on March 15, 1982. I do, however, appreciate your willingness to address our group.

We were fortunate in your absence to have John N.
McMahon join us despite very short notice and difficult weather conditions for flying. His presentation was informative, delivered in an outstanding manner, and was extremely well received by our group. I would appreciate it if you would convey to John my compliments and appreciation.

Sincerely,

Bill
